Qualified Life Purpose Coach, Life Plan Facilitator, Instructor for LPCCI by Life Purpose Coaching Centers International, 2007

I offer:

- Spiritual direction
- Life Purpose Coaching
- Life Plans
- Leadership Coaching – keys to maximize your personal and professional success

Although I do not hold any formal Spiritual Direction certification, being a spiritual director (coming along side others and helping them discern how to live a life of faith in the everyday circumstances of their every day life) is a life-calling I have received from God. My years as a woman in ministry, my own spiritual learning, my constant reading, and the bumps and bruises along the hot pavement of life—not to mention my relationship with Jesus—have prepared me for this calling. I continue to learn and grow and am accountable to my own spiritual director.

I deliver monthly Leadership Development workshops called “Power to Lead...5 keys to maximize your personal and professional success” and weekly “PowerSurges” to the Leadership Team (AVP’s, Managers, Directors) of Manulife Financials Global Operations Team. Executive coaching opportunities have come from this.

Most recently, I have been coaching women who are setting up businesses or ministries on-line the area of building databases, article directories, developing ebooks, setting up blogs, how to build content for a website, how to format a newsletter or other kinds of consistent communication.

Do you long to cultivate a devotional lifestyle; one of continuous attentiveness, encounter, and surrender to God...even on the hot pavement of everyday life?

Do you know God’s purpose for your life? If so, are you fulfilling His custom-made just-for-you purpose? Do you need some help to focus in on your next steps?

Are you wondering what spiritual direction and life coaching is all about? The best way to discover more about this life-giving, life-changing process is to try it! Email me today at Kathy@KathyButryn.com to set up your FREE 30-MINUTE direction or coaching session or to discuss any questions you may have.

I would count it a privilege to walk beside you as your Spiritual Director, certified Life Coach or Life Plan Facilitator.

Using the technology that is available to us today, much of my spiritual direction and coaching with clients is done over the phone, using Skype, or through email. Face-to-face appointments can also be arranged.
